Week 4 Term 4 2018

CREATIVITY

It will be a very different week without our Year 5 leaders! So the interim leadership team will be Brodie, Summa and Marshall. I am sure we can all find a way to give these students encouragement and positivity.

There is a lot going on behind the scenes at Medlow at present. Listed below is a snapshot of how our school is working on simultaneous tasks that have both immediate and long term impact.

* Remembrance Day Preparation
Sunday 11 November

* Valley 10 Art Show
Coordination of 50 Paintings to be mounted, framed and then preparation for opening night – Saturday 24 Nov.

* Preparation of Semester 2
School Reports and Portfolios – paper and digital

* Preparation for Presentation
Day Thursday 13 December.

* School Review of Reporting and Well Being Frameworks

* 2 year planning of curriculum
delivery – 2019 and 2020

* Asset Management of our fence line

* Landcare Grant Application to support rainforest habitat on Scott Kyle's property.

I look forward to meeting with the P & C on Friday to discuss these ideas.

Remembrance Day

This year Remembrance Day falls on Sunday 11 November and Medlow has been invited by Mr Stuart Johnson and the Taylors Arm RSL Sub Branch to be a part of the Commemoration. A service at the Cenotaph will take place at 11.00am followed by an unveiling of a plaque in the Taylors Arm Hall and a light lunch.

Students are asked to assemble at the Cenotaph at 10.45 in full school uniform with their school hats.

Awards

Beau and Quinten received awards from Mr Simpson on Friday. Quinten's was for superb effort learning the drums and Beau's was for excellent writing and sustained effort in a writing task.

Welcome Back Nate

It was wonderful to welcome Nate Bloomfield back to school today looking very healthy and happy. We will have to modify our lunch and recess breaks to make sure Nate stays well—no hockey or footy just yet.

AECEDE Research Project

Parents of Kindergarten students are required to complete a survey. Please find attached a covering letter and the survey.

Principal

Expressions of Interest for Taekwondo Lessons

Terri Jones has organised for a Taekwondo instructor to give lessons at the Taylors Arm on Thursday evenings from 5.00—6.30pm. This is the only time slot the instructor has available.

If you are interested in learning Taekwondo please contact Terri on 65 64 2244. The first couple of lessons will be a come and try lesson.

Nate getting right back into playing with his mates on the fort.

Summa completing her artwork for the Art Show with Nellie.

Georgie, Beau, Quinten and Miss Emma discussing healthy food options at lunchtime.
